

Relocation Assistance Policy and Procedure

Section 1 - Preamble

(1) Charles Darwin University ('the University', 'CDU') is committed to employing staff with diverse backgrounds, experiences and mindsets. To attract the best talent and cultivate a diverse workforce, the University will provide assistance to eligible appointees to relocate to minimise financial impacts.

Section 2 - Purpose

(2) This policy and procedure outlines the financial assistance available to eligible appointees who are required to relocate to commence employment with the University.

Section 3 - Scope

(3) This policy applies to all appointees who meet the eligibility criteria defined below.

Section 4 - Policy

Relocation assistance supports

(4) For the purpose of this policy and procedure, relocation assistance includes financial contributions from the University, up to the prescribed limits, for:

- a. travel;
- b. packing of furniture and kitchen goods;
- c. relocation of furniture and personal effects; and
- d. the transportation of one (1) vehicle.

(5) The employee is responsible for packing personal items such as clothing, books, paperwork etc.

(6) This policy and procedure articulates the entitlements associated with travel and relocation of goods that will be payable by the University.

(7) The University will only provide one way relocation assistance for the appointee to relocate and commence employment. Return costs to the original place of recruitment are not covered.

Eligibility

(8) Appointees (both new and current staff) are eligible for relocation assistance if they meet the following criteria:

- a. They are current employees of the University and have won an advertised (either internally or externally) position and are required to relocate to commence in this role;
- b. The position is full-time continuing or fixed term for a minimum period of twelve (12) months;

- c. The position is classified at Academic Level A or above and Professional Level 7 or above; and
- d. The appointee is recruited from an area not accessible to the University's campuses on a day-to-day basis, for example interstate or overseas.
- e. Where an appointee's spouse has also been offered a position at the University and is an eligible appointee as defined in this policy, the combined support for the two appointees will not exceed the maximum amount for one appointee.

Approval and Delegations

(9) All relocation assistance processes and approvals are managed through People and Culture in line with the prescribed limitations as outlined in relevant tables below.

Section 5 - Procedure

(10) Upon acceptance of the employment contract, People and Culture will liaise with the appointee and initiate the relocation process in conjunction with the University's preferred provider.

(11) The following tables outline appointee relocation entitlements for both domestic and international relocations.
